Tennis, Boat Races and Tea Popular at Bayhead Special Correspondence

Special Correspondence
BAYHEAD, July 19.—Tennis, boat races and teas were the attractions at Bayhead this week.
In the second series of races in the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association's schedule, Orton G. Dale, of New York, took first place with his "Arran." Second honors went to R. B. Hance, of Mount Airy, Penn., in his "Ripple." Both are Bayhead boats. The club is hopeful of again winning the bay association's pennant.

This week saw the inauguration of a new programme of bridge and teaparties at the yacht club. The Bluffs Hotel has arranged for dances there every Tuesday, Friday and Saturday night for the rest of the season.
